

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 3, 2006

Contacts: Vanessa Kromer, Nederlander (323) 817-6108
Cell (213) 321-8137
Deanne Poulos, Maricopa County (602) 506-7232

MAX WILSON PRESENTS
JAMES M. NEDERLANDER THE KEY TO
MARICOPA COUNTY EVENTS CENTER

WHO: Max Wilson of Maricopa County will be presenting James M. and James L. Nederlander the key to officially take over the management and operations of the Maricopa County Events Center (formerly known as the Sundome) at a special press conference.

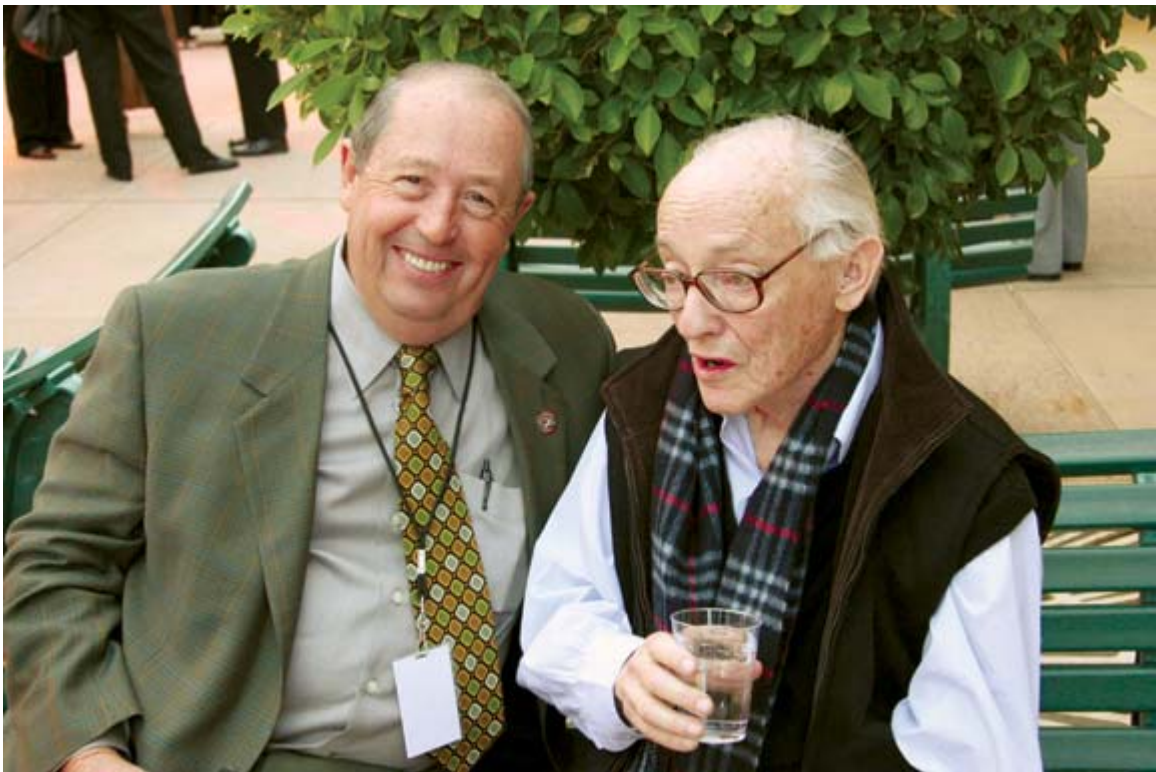

Scheduled to appear at the press conference is the Desert Sounds 17-piece Big Band, Maricopa County Supervisor Max Wilson, District 4, William C. Scalzo, Assistant Maricopa County Manager, Ms. Dee Hjermstad, Sundome Performing Arts Association President, James M. and James L. Nederlander of the Nederlander Organization and Dan Wohleen, General Manager of the Maricopa County Events Center.

WHERE: Maricopa County Events Center (formerly the Sundome)
19403 R.H. Johnson Blvd.
Sun City West, AZ

WHEN: Monday, March 6
9:00 AM

HIGH-LIGHTS: Tour of Maricopa County Events Center. Continental breakfast will be served.

#

Nederlander Concerts will host its grand-opening event at the Maricopa County Events Center (formerly known as the Sundome) on Saturday, March 25 with one of the most popular traditional male pop vocalists in history, Johnny Mathis.